

Local & Miscellaneous.

[From Saturday's Daily.]

LYNX CREEK.—Mr. Ballou was in here yesterday, from Walker's Camp, on upper Lynx creek, where he, with his wife and family reside. He spoke of very cold weather, owing to which, according to gold had to be suspended. Creek mining was, however, brisk and profitable when Mr. B. left, and will remain so during this winter. Lower down the creek, at the old Mexican camp, men were at work with rockers, and all, he said, informed him that they were doing well.

Mr. Lovejoy has everything in readiness for working his hydraulic claims.

Mr. D. J. Marr, of Woolsey Valley, was in our office this morning, and informed us that George Hinzelman, M. Lange and others of the valley, who have placer claims in Big Bug district, were making preparation for working them.

Mr. M. says that the farmers of the valley have not, as yet, secured their corn.

Mr. E. S. Penwell, of this office, who has been confined to bed for several days past, by a knife-wound—received by accident, while sky-larking with another printer—is, we are pleased to be able to state, almost as well as ever.

Grant's back-board went out "crowded" this morning. It was Mr. Jas. Grant, mail contractor, Dr. J. H. Pierson, general superintendent of Grant's mail routes; both bound for Wickenburg; Capt. C. E. Warner and E. G. Mitchell, bound for Phoenix. The mail was a large one.

David Gray and another man, (name unknown to us) started recently from the Verde, intending to go to New Mexico, but got no farther in that direction than the Mogollon mountains, tramping through the deep snow, in which they froze portions of their feet. They are now back at Verde.

Another party which started out about the same time, didn't get lost, and, of course, found no difficulty in making the trip.

C. H. Ott, an old citizen of this place, now of Tucson, arrived here last night from that place, on horseback, and is now feeling good while talking about old times here, with old friends.

He reports very heavy rains in the southern section of our Territory, and says he is pleased with the growth of our town during his long absence.

L. B. Jewell has clocks, watches, chains, rings, buttons, everything, in fact, for which people "hanker" in Holiday times.

Having been in the habit of assaying ores, etc., "for the good of the country," he now proposes to take into consideration the fact that the country is all right, and that he will, hereafter, consult his own good, in this matter. In other words, he cannot afford to make assays for nothing.

Major A. W. Evans and Capt. Geo. F. Price, U. S. A., arrived at Fort Whipple yesterday. The Major, from a tour of inspection, the Captain from Tucson, where he, a short time ago, finished his section of the military telegraph line, in the building of which he may well be grouped as the central figure.

Geo. Jackson and other Walnut Grove people are here, selling vegetable and other products of their farms.

The "Veasvius" miners left Prescott this morning, bound to return soon, with more gold. Good luck to them.

Dr. T. J. Wilson and Mr. Davis, of Maryville, Maricopa county, came in with Captain Price's party.

Mr. L. Smith came to town last night, from Davis' ranch, head of Hassayampa creek, and says that the snow is two feet deep there. Water plenty in creek.

Colonel Bigelow has more feet—300 in the Davis—for which he has paid L. Smith $500.

C. C. Bean has started men and teams, with lumber, to Lynx creek. His idea is to place mine on a grand scale.

The Hardyville mail, in charge of Calvin White, left Prescott about 8 o'clock, yesterday evening.

We are threatened with another snow-storm.

[From Monday's Daily.]

D. C. Moreland and G. A. Hammond ("Dad" and "Sandy") got to town Saturday night from Bradshaw district. They report plenty of water running in all the streams in the country and about four feet of snow on the divide. They brought in and presented to J. L. Cook a wild turkey weighing 30 lbs. Mr. Moreland had indulged in a little "bar" hunt but his feet badly frost-bitten. They had been down on Castle creek, south of Bradshaw, hunting and prospecting, and found some very large quartz veins. They state that the country is so wet as to make traveling in the hills very difficult. Evidently more water fell in that section than around Prescott.

Captain Price and Mr. Huger gave us a pleasant call last week. The Captain says that the whole telegraph line in Arizona is built on good ground and not likely to give much trouble, but between Yuma and San Francisco on the Colorado Desert, it is built for a long distance on sand which in windy weather blows away from around the poles so that they fall down. It is there that all the stoppages occurred after communication was first established.

Contractors for Q. M. supplies at the various military posts and for transportation must begin to figure thereon. The contracts will be advertised January 1st—bids to be opened March 4th, 1874.

FORT WHIPPLE ITEMS.—Captain James H. 5th Cavalry, with his company, G. 5th Cavalry, returned to Fort Whipple to day, after an absence of 36 days, during which they marched over 700 miles, through a very rough and barren country. The capture of the notorious Apache chief Chihuahua Sal, was effected, and the captive is now at Fort Whipple, in guard house. Six Indians were killed on the trip.

Grant's back-board, with mails and passengers from the south and west, arrived here early this morning. It also brought a large express list.

A letter of the 19th inst. from Mr. F. L. Brill, of Bill Smith's quartz mill, near Wickenburg, informs us that the institution was running and paying.

Walnut Grove is about to lose two of its old citizens—L. K. Stephenson and S. Richardson—who are preparing to leave for Oregon.

At the auction rooms of J. L. Fisher, on Gurley street, Mr. F. sold a large stock of assorted merchandise last Saturday.

Since the postoffice at Date Creek has been abandoned, the mail has been carried through Antelope Valley, and the inhabitants of Kirkland Valley claim that their post office has been ignored by the mail contractor, and they are left out in the cold, and depend on travelers from Skull and Antelope for mail.

Messrs. Hall, Rodgers and others from Chino Valley came in Saturday with various kinds of produce.

Sol and Al Jackson and party are expected to arrive in town Tuesday night or Wednesday, with a wagon load of ducks, geese, and fat, from the Verde, all good food for Christmas.

P. McAtter brought in a load of turkeys on Sunday, which went off like hot cakes.

Messrs. Flanders & Penelon, photographers, arrived in town Sunday evening, via Molave. They propose making a stay of some weeks in Prescott, and will give the public an opportunity to get good pictures of themselves.

Traveling through the country they are taking photographs of all noteworthy points and landscapes for the purpose of supplying the outside world with a series of stereoscopic views of Arizona, an enterprise which can hardly fail to be remunerative.

Those in need of a new outfit of any kind of goods for the holidays or to begin a new year with, should examine the splendid stock just opened at the store of: F. Head & Co.

[From Tuesday's Daily.]

It snowed quite freely for half or three-quarters of an hour Saturday afternoon, and would have snowed longer but for a mean blast from the north.

The 6th Infantry band gave our citizens some fine pieces of music Saturday afternoon, on the Plaza.

Ed. F. Bowers came up from Skull Valley Saturday last, and says S. V. is the place for raising corn, potatoes and babies, all of which we can readily believe, having seen and examined specimens of these products. The valley, he says, is very wet, and the goods are feathered over with apples.

Messrs. Burke, McCallum, Hopkins and Reed, from Williamson valley, are in town to-day.

John Dawson and Frank Cooper had a muss last evening, caused by whiskey and women. Dawson got a black eye and was put out of doors, and was then arrested for disturbing the peace. The case was up this morning in court.

An elderly person named Dana, who, under the influence of liquor, was very abusive in talking to different parties last night, finally got his nose set up, which was what he wanted, probably, as he afterwards became quiet.

Old Shrimps is dead. He was a dog as well known in Arizona as ever. Bummer and Lazarus were in San Francisco. He was seven years old, and since his youth had been a vagrant, attaching himself to such a person as suited his fancy, and staying only till he thought some other offered better inducements. Sometimes with teamsters, again with miners, farmers, or gentlemen of leisure, Shrimps had traveled over the country extensively, and at different times lived in Yuma, La Paz, Wickenburg, Pinal Valley and the mines, finally coming back to Prescott, where, Sunday evening, he unwittingly swallowed a dose of strichnine, and shortly afterwards passed in his clench. His good qualities as a watch-dog, and his faithfulness to the party with whom he happened to sojourn, endeared him to all who knew him, and many a man will feel sorry to learn of his death.

Eggs are selling rapidly in town for $1.50 per dozen. A few dozen good laying hens would support a family here.

Butter is worth $1.25 per pound, and milk 80 cents per gallon, and lots of men are losing money by not having cows to eat the grass which grows in this country.

Don't fail to give attention to the photographic advertisement of Messrs Flanders & Penelon. They guarantee satisfaction in all they attempt.

Messrs Hammond & Moreland, while coming in from Bradshaw last week, saw two large droves of turkeys—one in the north foot-hills of Bradshaw and the other on Turkey Creek, below the station.

The party which went out to Bill Williams' Mountain, from Fort Whipple, returned last night. The trip was not a success, as the snow was so deep on the hills that they could not get within two miles of the turkey ground, and they only killed one deer.

The Miners acknowledge the receipt of two fine tame turkeys, for Christmas. Wm B. Helling sent two from Phoenix but one died before reaching Wickenburg, and our friend Dr. J. H. Pierson made good the deficiency from his own flock. Those who remonstrate the fact that the country is all right, and that he will, hereafter, consult his own good, in this matter. In other words, he cannot afford to make assays for nothing.

Capt James Burns, Co. G, 5th Cavalry, will not be forgotten in the list of officers whose names are household words all over Arizona. He and his men, for nearly a year have been constantly engaged in scouting after the Indians, and have contributed much toward pacifying the Apaches. When his command marched through town towards Fort Whipple, yesterday morning, with the notorious Chihuahua Sal in irons, everybody felt and expressed a great deal of satisfaction.

[From Wednesday's Daily.]

Delightful Christmas weather this—days sunny and pleasant. Nights sufficiently frosty to make warm drinks, fat, and sleep, afterwards, delicious, while, ever morning, our people have the pleasure of belying God's mighty monuments—the mountains—As, clad in snow, they point upwards to the Heaven where, sooner or later, all good Christians hope to go and fill worthy positions in the Temple of Jehovah.

Judge Fleury shaving the old gubernatorial mansion, in which he has resided since early in 1864, well shined and otherwise repaired, all of which proceeding look as if the worthy old gent was "sprucing up," intending to captivate the lady that is to be Mrs. F. Go in and win, Judge.

Messrs C. A. Pike & Co., notify all persons indebted to them to pay before January 1st.

George Lounhas, at last, succeeded in killing some 60,000 lbs, which he is now cooking. He will, it is said keep right on in the business, and hopes to be able to sell brisk so cheap that it will not pay peep to erect lumber houses.

Dr. T. J. Vason and Mr. Davies, of Maryville, Maricopa county, started from this place, for that, early this morning. The Dr. came up here to settle his business with Government, for Mr. Chas. Whitely, a very worthy citizen of Salt River Valley and who has recently made some very costly improvements on his place—the Upper, or McDowell crossing of Salt River.

Dr. Whitely passed through Arizona in 1868; has resided here several years, and likes the Territory so well that he will, in a few weeks, start for California to bring Mrs. W. here.

Matt Wh, from Chino Valley, with a load of Christmas-cakes, was the hero of Prescott, yesterday.

Messrs Junt and Ruff are putting the finishing touches on Flores' new house.

Mr. W. L. Johnson of Fort Whipple, has kindly furnished the MINER office with a copy of the Rules for S. Military Telegraph, printed in book form. We will, as occasion may require, give subscribers from the same as may be of use to them.

Owing to a large amount of job work on hand a lack of up in the office, we are unable to keep the promise made last week, that we would issue the WEEKLY MINER to-day. It will come out on Friday, as usual.

The young folks at Fort Whipple will have the pleasure of enjoying the fruit from a Christmas tree this evening.

Lieut F. Dodge, 33d Infantry, returned from his attendance as witness at the Camp Verde court-martial last night.

The joint list to be married to Miss Laura Clement, Friday evening, December 27, at headquarters of the department.

From thence we learn that four Indians who have been doing a little mountain air work, on their return to the reservation, arrested by Dr. Williams, Indian agent, for being absent without permit, and turned over to the post commander, Hopfinger, for safe keeping. The Indians learn they cannot go and come to and from the reservations at will, a great point will be gained.

Several days on the Verde Reservation, at the post among the settlers, notify us that they would glad to take the DAILY MINER if they had frequent mails.

The Indians the reservation are quiet. Ducks are quite plenty on the river.

The Jack hunting party sent into town, this morning, a pair of wild ducks, which were sold at $2.00 $2.50 per pair in a few minutes. As many would have been disposed of. The party remain on the river, and will send up another lot to New Year's.

Tom Mey, the great San Francisco financial fiend, attempted to deliver a lecture in Cork, Ind., recently, and was saluted by the audience with rotten eggs and decayed vegetables.

[MARRIED.]

In Prescott evening, December 24, by Judge J. C. Orr, Samuel Daniels to Miss Lucia B. Davis, both of Prescott.

In Prescott evening, December 24, by Judge J. C. Orr, Mr. Charles L. Hall to Miss Maria Watson.

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS.

A PROMINENT NEW YORK PHYSICIAN LATELY A. CAMPBELL, stating that sometimes his SANKALWOOD OIL CAPSULES, which he has taken them for some time, without effect. On being informed that several patients had been cured, he inquired, and found that his patient had been taking capsules sold in bottles, and not DUNDAS DICK & CO'S.

What happened to this physician may have happened to others, and DUNDAS DICK & CO. take this method of proving their capsules, druggists and themselves, and preventing OILS OF SANDALWOOD from coming into disrepute. PHYSICIANS who once prescribe the Capsules will continue to do so, for they contain the pure Oil in the best and cheapest form.

DUNDAS DICK & CO. use more OIL OF SANDALWOOD in the manufacture of their Capsules than all the Wholesale and Retail Druggists in the United States combined, and this is the sole reason why the pure Oil is so cheap in their capsules than in any other form.

OIL OF SANDALWOOD is fast superseding every other remedy, sixty capsules only being required to insure a safe and certain cure in six or eight days. From so many other medicines can this result be had.

DICK'S OIL CAPSULES solve the problem long considered by many eminent physicians, of how to avoid the nausea and disgust experienced in swallowing, which are well known to deter from, if not destroy, the good effects of many valuable remedies.

Soft capsules are put up in tin-folios and neat boxes, thirty in each, and are the only capsules prescribed by Physicians.

These were the only Capsules admitted to the List of Dispensaries to 35 West Street, New York.
